

River City Bank's

Paid Internships

Real Experience in Real Teams

At River City Bank, you're not just an intern; you are a potential full-time employee. That's why you'll be integrated into a team and given a real role with tangible projects. The diverse business knowledge you'll gain can open many doors and serve you well as a conduit to launching a successful finance career.

Additional Exposure

You will likely be working out of our corporate headquarters, and will often work closely with our Executive Management team. You'll receive real-time feedback to help you improve your work and develop your skills.

How We'll Reward You

You can expect a competitive salary and plenty of recognition for your achievements. Top performers may be offered full-time positions upon graduation.

What You'll Learn

You will be offered the opportunity to gain practical skills, network with other employees and senior managers, and build your understanding of the bank and our industry.

Who Can Apply

We set the bar high. We're looking for leaders who have demonstrated academic success, and are passionate about joining our team. Equally, we require people who are driven to succeed, bring a fresh perspective, and work collaboratively in a team. Specifically, candidates must have:

- Undergraduate major in Economics, Finance, or a related field with an overall GPA of at least 3.5
- Computer literacy in word processing and spreadsheet software
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills
- Ability to work independently, as well as in a team environment

If this sounds like an opportunity that's right for you, visit www.rivercitybank.com/careers to apply.
